

LAW WEEK 2011

GREAT DEBATE:

BALANCING THE SCALES

WHAT DO YOUNG PEOPLE HAVE TO TELL US ABOUT THE JUSTICE SYSTEM

OJEN's Great Debate has often focused on the debate amongst legal professionals about controversial issues. This year, we aim to debate the proposals young people make about legal reform or their experience of the justice system. Hear five short presentations for legal reform from community or school groups and then participate in the debate.

Who should attend: judges, justice of the peace, defence counsel, educators, lawyers, other interested in hearing what youth think works, or does not work, in our legal system.

The Ontario Justice Education Network (OJEN) and The Law Society of Upper Canada are pleased to present this annual Law Week event that promotes dialogue about the legal issues affecting Canadians.

A networking reception will follow the debate. Light refreshments and snacks will be served.

DATE: Tuesday April 12, 2011

DEBATE: 5:00 – 6:30 p.m.

RECEPTION: 6:30 – 8 p.m.
