

KNOW WHERE YOU STAND

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES NAVIGATING CITY PROPERTIES

In partnership with the City of Toronto's Crisis Response Program (CCRP) and Toronto Youth Equity Strategy (TYES), the Ontario Justice Education Network (OJEN) is pleased to offer a FREE two day justice education training workshop series, that gives Youth Workers, youth leaders and those who provide support to youth residents, the opportunity to learn about the agreements, policies and procedures that may affect Toronto Community Housing and City owned properties.

DATE (s): JUNE 3 & 4, 2015

LOCATION: Toronto Police College

ADDRESS: 70 Birmingham St.

TIME: 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM
(Both days)

REGISTRATION: To register, please visit OJEN's website under "News and Events" at www.ojen.ca.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE:
May 29th, 2015.

Refreshments and lunch will be served.

Session materials will be provided on site.

*Venue is accessible*

This program is supported by:

PROGRAM AT A GLANCE:

- » Youth Justice
- » Agent of Landlord
- » Trespass to Property Act
- » Police Discretion
- » Use of Force
- » Police Complaints
- » Networking with lawyers, crisis response advocates, community safety advisors, legal clinic reps and police officers.
- » Navigating supports and more!

For more information please contact OJEN

Email: info@ojen.ca

Phone us: 416.761.9963 EXT: 285

Funded by:

