Braiding Diversity into Justice

Braiding Diversity into Justice is an event in the Waterloo region that connects marginalized and/or racialized young women between the ages of 16 and 20 with women working in law. This annual event encourages young women from diverse backgrounds to have confidence in their ability to become successful legal/justice professionals.

The program is presented by the Ontario Justice Education Network (OJEN), Waterloo Committee.

If you will be 17 years of age or younger on March 4th, 2021, your parent or guardian must consent to you participating in Braiding Diversity into Justice between 8:15 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on Thursday, March 4th 2021.

I/we give permission for my/our child/ward to attend Braiding Diversity into Justice, an online educational program taking place by Zoom between 8:15 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on Thursday, March 4th 2021.
