

Sistahs-in-Law: Paving the Way

A day-long educational opportunity for female high school students

Thursday November 11, 2010

9:15 am – 4:00 pm

99 Sudbury, 99 Sudbury Street, Toronto

(East of Dufferin, off King Street West)

Program

- | | |
|------------------|--|
| 9:15 – 9:30 am | Registration and Welcome
Location: 99 Sudbury Street, Toronto |
| 9:30 - 10:15 am | Meet Your Big Sistah
Share a bit about yourself while you get acquainted with your big sistah and maybe a few of her friends over a continental breakfast. |
| 10:15 - 10:30 am | Opening Remarks
Why are we here, why is this event important? Learn a bit about the legacy of Sistahs-in-Law and those who started it. |
| 10:35-11:15 am | Tune In – Know Your Value
Session 1
What is a core value and what are yours? In this session you will identify your core values and brainstorm how they can demonstrate those values in their everyday experiences. |
| 11:20 – 12:30 pm | My Personal Journey to a Career in Law
Session 3
Enjoy an interactive session where you'll follow the paths of black female lawyers as they reflect on their personal journey into a career in law. |
| 12:30 – 2:00 pm | Lunch
Re-join your big sistahs for an amazing lunch, catered by award-winning Executive Chef, Selwyn Richards, and his team at The Art of Catering. Recognized as an expert in his field, Selwyn and The Art of Catering are renowned for their TV appearances on such shows as "I Do... Let's Eat!" (Food Network), "Rich Bride, Poor Bride" (Life Network) and "Soul Food" (BET Network/Showtime). |
| 2:00 – 2:45 pm | They Paved the Way Reflection Session
Take the time to reflect on today's experience, are you inspired to continue your path to a career in law? What did you learn – any surprises? |
| 2:50 – 3:15 pm | Mix, Mingle and Network
Walk in the footsteps of your big sistah as they mix, mingle and work the room! Meet other sistahs – in - law, your future colleagues, paving the way for your career in law. |
| 3:20 – 4:00 pm | Closing Remarks
The journey as only begun. |